A Special Performance by Key City Public Theatre for the PTYC

December 27, 2018 at 7 PM

Every Christmas Story Ever Told (and then some)

On some evenings in December 2018 instead of performing Charles Dickens' beloved holiday classic for the umpteenth time, or Spirit of the Yule for that matter, three actors decide to perform every Christmas story ever told — plus Christmas traditions from around the world, seasonal icons from ancient times to topical pop-culture, and every carol ever sung. A madcap romp through the holiday season!

By Michael Carleton, Jim Fitzgerald & John Alvarez
Directed by Denise Winter

Purchase your tickets directly from Key City Public Theatre. This is an extra performance in addition to the regular series.

Following the play, attend the Night Owl After Party at our clubhouse! The doors open at 8:30 PM. All members are invited, even those who miss the play.
