Commodore's Column:

Ahoy PTYC Members!

Spring 2011, they say, is the coldest on record but every few days a sunny summer teaser comes along and the world glows. We boaters appreciate good weather more than most since our water borne interest exposes us to the elements in a very personal way. Wet, dry or windy we are in the middle of it and subject to its whims!

A special thank you and salute to our May Watch Linda and Dan Newland. A delicious desert and related goodies were enjoyed by all. Again, my thanks. Also, a special thank you is in order for Rodger Slade and his team for stepping in with an informative presentation related to boating safety and rescue matters. As you will recall, unexpectedly, the scheduled presenter could not make it so Club member Macy Galbreath contacted West Marine at the last minute and Roger graciously stepped up.

May was a very busy month for the Club including: Open Boat at Boat Haven on May 1 (organized by Mori Whitney, Katherine Buchanan); Opening Day breakfast May 7 (organized by Barb Hager); Opening Day boat parade May 7 (organized by Jim Quant); Opening Day clam boil (organized by Dick and Carol Smith); and the Rhody Parade May 21 (organized by Rayma Mery). A profound thank you to all activity organizers and to all Club members who joined in the fun. Even though the weather was a little snotty, I think Opening Day was a great success and very well attended.

June will be active with scheduled cruises beginning with June 3rd Pleasant Harbor (Cruise Captains Sue and Carl Sidle); Telegraph Harbor (Cruise Captains Bill Rothert and Macy Galbreath); a 4th of July at Reid Harbor (Cruise Captains Mike and Barb Soskin and Ken and Ila Mikkelsen) and an August 28-31 Cruise 28-31 to Gig Harbor with both the Lady Washington and Hawaiian Chieftain in port (Cruise Captains Jim and Char Quandt.) The summer will end with a Labor Day Cruise to Sequim Bay (Cruise Captains Bill and Karen Bloemker.) Ilona and I hope to attend all of the cruises, so we will see you on the water!

Custom Designed,
Handmade Quilt
Presented to Port Townsend
Yacht Club

Member Sandy Curtis honored PTYC with a hand made nautical quilt with an embroidered PTYC Burgee depicting her and Dick’s love of sailing their 35’ Bristol, “Adventure,” in Puget Sound, Canada and Alaska. A dedication to PTYC is embroidered on the reverse side.

Rhody Parade ‘Land Cruise’ at the Anderson’s

G'Day,

Great PTYC picnic and parade - and no rain. Members (old & new), friends & relatives enjoyed the event - at one time I counted over 90 guests. Tired from roasting 90 hotdogs - enough already! Rhody run was not on our schedule! Tired and happy today. Jim & Audree Anderson

Many THANKS to The Andersons for their generous hospitality.

Rayma Mery and fun-loving PTYC Members

Commodore’s Column: (concludes)

Our membership drive will continue informally through the summer so if any interested boaters out there would like more information, please feel free to contact us by clicking on the Membership Drive Page in the right side-bar on this website.

As you know, the Baggywrinkle goes dark after this issue until September. Be sure to keep the 2nd Tuesdays of July and August — July 12th and August 9th—open for a PTYC Gathering (without a business meeting.) There will be other activities through the summer so be sure to closely monitor our website for the latest updates.

And finally, we continue with our “Sea-Word” Challenge. Last month many members quickly figured out the lyrics of “Southern Cross” by Crosby Stills and Nash. This month we extract a famous quote from a famous character from a famous book by a famous author. But, with a special twist, this quote was also used in a famous sci-fi movie by a famous character played by a famous actor. Did I say “Famous”? So, who first said it, from what book, written by whom? For extra special credit, what movie character said it in what movie; and who was the actor portraying the character?

*To the last I grapple with thee
From hell’s heart I stab at thee
For hate’s sake I spit my last breath at thee.*

That’s it for now and good luck!

Fred Bell, Commodore

Reciprocals Revealed!

Sidney North Saanich Yacht Club, Sidney, BC

Bill and I have enjoyed going into the Sidney North Saanich Yacht Club on the west end of Tsehum Harbor in Blue Heron Basin. The club has a long reciprocal dock and a lovely clubhouse with a bar and dining room that are closed on Monday and Tuesday. It is located in a quiet residential neighborhood and a long walk from Van Isle Marina area, but it is a great place to sit back and relax for a couple of free nights.

Opportunities To Make Cruising Easier

As part of the membership informational meetings we talk about several permits and memberships that are available to boaters. We thought it might be good review for our entire club.

After boating in this area, one is eventually ready to head to Canada and even further north. Since all persons coming into the U.S. are subject to Immigration and Customs inspection, there are two permitting tracks that you might want to consider to ease your travel from Canada: the NEXUS program and Form I-68. Which one to choose?

1. NEXUS is a joint program with Canada that allows pre-screened, approved travelers faster processing both entering Canada and returning to the US. You can use it on your boat and also by car. It is an integrated program with one application and fee submission of $50 and it is good for five years. Each person must apply on line and be interviewed in person at Boeing Field in Seattle or at Blaine (our two closest). This is the program we chose – just because we only had to do it every five years and it was a little less expensive. It allows us to call by phone when crossing the border on our boat and get clearance often without stopping at a point of entry when entering the US. Entering Canada, you have to make a brief stop at an entry port. www.nexus.gov
2. The U.S. government's I-68 (Canadian Border Boat Landing Permit) allows both Canadians and Americans entering the U.S. on a boat to by-pass inspection. You must still "check in" by phone and everyone on board must have a valid I-68. The fee for an individual Form I-68 is $16 and is valid for one year. There is a family cap of $32, but each member of the family 14 years or older must obtain a separate form I-68. To get the I-68 form, you need to schedule an appointment with an I.N.S. officer. His office is located on the second floor of the Port Townsend Post Office. The office hours are Mon-Fri 8-4 but he can often be out at the airport or port so call for an appointment or information at 385-3777.
3. In addition, boats over 30 ft. will need to get a Customs decal for entering the US. It costs $27.50 per year (Jan.-Dec.) I.N.S. prefers that you establish an account on line. Information and brochures are available at the Port Townsend office. www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/travel/pleasure\_boats/user\_fee/user\_fee\_decal.xml
4. Another program of interest is the Washington State Parks Moorage Permits. Fees at the state marine parks are charged from 1:00 pm – 8:00 am usually year round. You can pay daily at $.50 per foot or get an annual permit for $3.50 per foot – minimum of $50. You may purchase an annual permit at Fort Flagler Park Office. You need your registration, boat name, and size. The annual permit pays for itself with 7 overnight moorages. Just cruising with the club this year will have you visiting Stuart Island – Prevost Harbor (2 nights), Stuart Island – Reed Harbor (3-4 nights), Sequim Bay (3 nights), plus visits to Mystery Bay. Bill and I like to take guests on lunch cruises to Mystery Bay. When we do, we have to pay to pull into the dock if we are there for longer than 30 minutes, so having the permit is the way to go. www.parks.wa.gov/boating/moorage/
5. Finally, we want to mention the Recreational Boating Association of Washington. This organization is the boat owners lobbying group with the state, and provides members with a flow of information about issues affecting boating. Individual membership dues are $20 year and provide discounts at Fisheries Supply in Seattle as well as other businesses. PTYC does pay dues each year as a club, but we have found that we like being individual members too. Our speaker for July (rescheduled from May when he was taken ill) will be RBAW President Ed Jennerich who will talk about boating issues before the WA State Legislature this year.
