Commodore's Column:

Ahoy PTYC Members!

Spring comes slowly to the verdant Pacific Northwest; but in time, the chill dampness, rain and fog gives way to warmth and sunshine and the world, and the human spirit, are renewed. The natural beauty of the Salish Sea environs is absolutely world class and we mere humans are so lucky to live here and share in its bounty. Club member Sue Sidle passed along an anonymous poem she picked some thirty years ago that, I believe, expresses our love of the region in a joyous way.

Puget Sound

As happy as a butter clam when tides are high I sing
 A grateful Ode to Puget Sound the land of everything.
 I love it from Tulalip to Puyallup, Sequim and Pysht
 And to the Dosewallips where so many times I've fished.
 From Brinnon to the Bogachiel, from Lummi to La Push,
 And from the lordly Sol Duc to the lovely Duckabush,
 From the Samish to Sammamish, from Suquamish to Quilcene,
 The climate is so friendly, it's a land that's evergreen.
 There's peace on the Skokomish, on the Queets and on the Hoh,
 There's calm on the Nisqually born of ageless ice and snow,
 A land that nature loves so much she stays the whole year round.
 I'd trade a Royal Palace for a shack on Puget Sound.
 There's the Chimacum and Steilacoom where spouts the geoduck.
 The singing Stillaguamish and the swirling Skookumchuck,
 And the Moclips and Copalis where the razor clams abound.
 A little bit of heaven is a shack on Puget Sound.

A special salute to the Watch for our April General Meeting where delicious desserts shared space with a spread of seafood appetizers generously offered by Mystery Bay Seafood Company. My thanks to Watch members Bill Rothert and Macy Galbreath, Jac Mang and Corine de Boer, Mary Grace Swift and Bob Steele and Craig Kurath for their hard work. A special thanks to Leonard Johnson for the delightful offerings from Mystery Bay Catering.

EARTH DAY—Clean Up at Mystery Bay

At about 8:45 on the morning of April 16 the intensity of the rain at Mystery Bay and the weather forecast were such that it was decided to reschedule the PTYC clean-up of Mystery Bay, and calls were made to people on the list to inform them of this decision. However, there were people there from the cruise-in and some people who drove in before they were called who decided to work in spite of the rain (which fortunately decreased). We worked on plant trimming, loading of cut vegetation, weeding, cleaning of bulletin boards, and spreading the gravel that had already been delivered. We also replaced turf/dirt between the road and the restroom area with gravel to provide an all weather path to the restrooms. As it turned out, we had the right number of people to finish the work that could be done in the weather we had by about 11:30. About then the rain started to get heavier again so we went to the Valley Tavern for lunch. Many thanks to those listed below who stayed and to everyone who volunteered to help.

David Barrows, Lou and Linda Deal, Diane Grabner, Lee Jensen, Alan and Cathy Lapat, Michael Machette, Brian Moratti, Jim and Char Quandt, and Rick Rezinias.

▪ THANK-YOU to Fleet Captain Jim Quandt for the tremendous amount of advertising and publicity for this year's May 7th Opening Day Celebration sponsored by the Port Townsend Yacht Club. Our color posters are all around town (that happen to feature 'Roundabout' — the Commodore's Bayliner) along with many announcements in various local publications. Hope to you there! LET'S PARTY!

Commodore's Column: (concludes)

Our thanks to Sara Spaeth of the Jefferson Land Trust and Rebecca Benjamin of the North Olympic Salmon Coalition for bringing us up to date on the status of Chimacum Creek and Discovery Bay restoration projects. Such projects are vital to the overall health of our region and to ensure that future generations may experience the bounty of the region as we do.

Our membership drive is off to a fantastic start as the Club inducted ten new families at the April meeting (see page 10). Our drive will continue at least through September. If any interested boaters out there would like more information, please feel free to contact us by clicking on the Membership Drive Page in the right side-bar on our website ptyc.net

Our annual Shake-down Cruise and Mystery Bay/Earth day was harassed by unsettled weather but the bulk of the cleanup was accomplished. Our thanks to members who toughed-out the weather and a special thanks to Chelcie Liu for overall organization. Thanks to Cruise Captains Jim and Char Quandt and Alan & Cathy Lapat for the good time had by all.

May is a very busy month for the Club including: Open Boat at Boat Haven on May 1 (contact Mori Whitney, Katherine Buchanan); Board Meeting May 4; Opening Day breakfast May 7 (contact Barb Hager); Opening Day boat parade May 7 (contact Jim Quandt); Opening Day clam boil (at Mystery Bay contact Dick and Carol Smith); General Meeting May 10; Rhody Parade May 21 (contact Rayma Mery); WHEW!

Finally, and with great fanfare, we continue with our "Sea-Word" challenge. You guys did great last month on the "Wind in the Willows" quote but were maybe a little thin on the author's name (I had to look it up!). This month we extract lyrics from a contemporary tune about running away to sea to escape a failed relationship. What is the name of the song and what band performed it? Have fun!

Got out of town on a boat go'in southern islands
Sailing a reach before a following sea
She was making for the trades on the outside
On the downhill run to Popehe Bay
Off the wind on this heavy line to the Marques
We got eighty-feet on the waterline
Nice to be mak'in way
In a noisy bar in Avalon I tried to call you
But on a midnight watch I realized why twice you ran away

That's it for now, see you at our many May events!

Fred Bell, Commodore

“Cruise” to the Rhody Parade

Saturday, May 21, Noon

Home of Jim & Audree Anderson

764 Lawrence Street, [Up Town] Port Townsend

You, your family and friends are invited to PTYC's annual Rhododendron Parade picnic and parade watching event. The bands always play, and the color guard loves it when we stand as the flag passes. Lots of floats, marching bands, politicians, and local color. The theme for this year's parade is the MOVIES so wear a wild outfit, funny hat, red shoes, and bring silk or crepe paper flowers to wave. Let your imagination go!

Bring your lawn chairs to the Andersons' home by Friday morning, May 14, to reserve front row seats. On Saturday, at 12:00 noon, we will picnic and party before the parade, which starts one hour later. Hot dogs, condiments, and plastic ware will be provided. Bring your own finger food potluck dish to share and your own beverages. Parking is on adjacent side streets. Questions? Please contact: Rayma Mery (360) 379-9820 kiwis@olyopen.com

Using Our Reciprocals

As the weather improves and we begin the cruising season, I encourage everyone to use our reciprocals. They are one of our greatest membership benefits. PTYC has reciprocal agreements with 111 yacht clubs along the West Coast that offer us free or significantly reduced moorage in exchange for the same when their members are visiting Port Townsend.

The bulk of the clubs are in our cruising area from Schooner Cove Yacht Club on Vancouver Island where many boats cross the Strait of Georgia to Olympia Yacht Club in our state capital. It is possible to spend two weeks on Lake Washington just visiting clubs and not spending anything on moorage, or a week in Vancouver, BC. Those of you with trailerable boats will want to look over the out of area list. Portland, Walla Walla, Yakima all beckon.

Key to a good reciprocal experience – be flexible -

I helped the Vice Commodore on reciprocals for 5 or 6 years and realized that no guide is ever 100% correct. It is difficult to keep all the information up to date. Almost all of our agreements are “until revoked”, so it is possible that we will not get an updated letter each year. When you head in, expect to find things a little different or tweaked from before.

Each club has its way of doing things. Some have specific slips in the marina such as Oak Harbor or Kingston Cove. For many, you contact the harbormaster via phone or VHF and get a slip assignment. Ours is that way at Boat Haven. When the club owns its marina, you often get assigned a slip of a member who is away. A couple of clubs have you pay, and then reimburse you for some or all of your moorage. Very, very few take reservations. Only Anacortes Yacht Club and Fidalgo Yacht Club at Cap Sante Marina come to mind. Since most are first come first serve, your best chance to catch a reciprocal slip is to head in midday.

Where to find the reciprocal list –

Our current reciprocal list is on page 19 of the new Roster. The reciprocals are grouped by location so that you can look to see what is around where you are cruising. It gives the marina and the city. All you really need then is the phone number of the harbormaster. We are also recommending The Burgee. It is a local marina guidebook published every few years by David Kutz and the only one that includes yacht club reciprocals. An update is included with this edition, plus you can sign up for free PDF updates sent to your email address. You need to include the ISBN number from your book. You can also let David Kutz know of any changes that you find. We have our cruising areas organized to match his. You will find a few of our reciprocal yacht clubs not in his book. Information on those will have to come from the Vice Commodore’s master reciprocal book.

Ships Store will be keeping a few copies of The Burgee for purchase at $20, which is a great discount from the retail price.

A couple of reminders –

- Members of the Port Townsend Yacht Club may not use our own reciprocal moorage. It is only for visiting boaters.
- Some clubs like Roche Harbor Yacht Club don’t have moorage at their home marina, but instead have made arrangements for another location, in this case, Bremerton Marina.
- Always fly your burgee and carry your PTYC membership card. You will usually be asked for your card.
- Moorage is usually free but you often have to pay for power. Sometimes, you need to pay a refundable deposit to get a key to the gate and/or bathrooms. A number of clubs have restaurants or weekly events that visiting boaters can take advantage of. Everyone enjoys dinner at the Seattle Yacht Club!

Remember: Be flexible: Plan to use some reciprocals this summer. Develop your favorites. Maybe we can publish a favorite of the month in the Baggywrinkle!
